THREE NEW COURT DISTRICTS

by the Sub-Committee-Fort and Dallas in One of Them. It is Believed that Brown's Bill Will Not Pass-Chartered.

Congressional Districts. Special to the Gazette.

AUSTIN, Tex., March 28.-The house AUSTIN. TEX., March 28.—The house committee on congressional districts to-day adopted the report of the conference committee as printed in Saturday's GAZETTE without change. The senate committee made little change in the report, putting Tarrant, Wise and Montague with the Panbandie. Mr. Carter and Mr. Sway is say that they are fairly well satisfied with the plants of the senate committee. change, being willing to accept anything that would separate them from Dallas. Mr. Swayne will contend for a corresponding change in the senatorial and floatorial dis-tricts. The Panhandle district as shaped by the senate committee will have 200,000 or more inhabitants.

The Three Districts.

Special to the Gazette.

AUSTIN, TEX., March 28.—The sub-committe of five appointed to-day by the house committee to apportion the state into three appellate districts, completed its work to-night. The plan adopted divides the state into an East. Southwest and Northwest district. A line was run from a point on Rea river between Lamar and Red river counties to Matagorda bay, leaving Tyler, Houston and Galveston in the east of it. The counties living along the east border of The counties lying along the east border of the line are Red River, Daita, Hopkins, Rains, Van Zandt, Henderson, Navarro, Limestone, Robertson, Brazes, Grines, Waller, Austin, Colorado, Wharton, Mata gorda

Beginning at the junction of Hill, Mc-Lennan and Limestone, a dividing line runs westward to El Paso county, thence north to the New Mexican border. The counties on the south border of this line are McLennan, Coryell, Lampasas, Mills, Brown, Coleman, Runneis, Coke, Tom Green, Glasscock, Upton, Crane, Pecos and Jeff Davis. In the southwest district Austin, Sen Marcos and San Antonio are left to struggle for the court and Dallas and Fort Worth in the northwest district. It is too late to get any expression from any too late to get any expression from any members on the feasibility of this plan or

Col. Brown's Rallway Bond Bill.

Special to The Gazette. AUSTIN, TEX., March 28.—The action of the house to-day in setting aside the text book bill in order to take up Col. Brown's railway bond bill did not insicate so much a desire to miopt the latter as to hear what arguments might be produced for and against it, Col. Brown spoke very earnestly in favor of it, the burden of his argument being the need for some limitation by the state on the authority of the railway recomments to issue honds the interest or the state on the authority of the railway companies to issue bonds, the interest on which, and the principal, ultimately would have to be paid by the people. The bill provides that no railroad company shall hereafter make or issue any stock or bonds for a sum greater than $0.000 a mile unless when a greater sum shall be paid for a when a greater sum shall be paid for a road at a judicial sale.

The new company may organize and issue bonds on such road for the amount of the money paid in good faith on such purchase. The bonds so issued shall be ratified by the commission and registered in the company of the sale has a shall all their bonds have a shall all their bonds have commission and registered in the comptroller's office, as shall all their bonds hereafter issued. Any bonds issued in violation of the law shall be vold.

Mr. Gresham's arguments against the bill were pointed and telling, and made a strong impression in the house.

Very few members had much acquaintance with the provisions of the bill, and gave clear attention to the discussion. Indeed the company of the bill, and gave clear attention to the discussion.

ance with the provisions of the bili, and gave close attention to the discussion. Judging from the comments of members after the debate ended it appears that the bill cannot pass the house in its present shape, if it can at all.

One member inclined to favor it said that he was appeared to fisher any limit on that he was opposed to fixing any limit on the amount of indebtedness any road may incur. It was enough to require the roads to register their bonds and stocks and leave the amount of each to their own discretion.

Another member said the bill was too weighty a matter to be considered at a sneedal session, and thought it should be weighty a matter to be considered at a special session, and thought it should be laid aside. He thought something should be done in that line, but had not the time to study his bill.

The temper of the bouse is not favorable to hasty or ill advised measures, and can analy be relied on to ignore what it cannot charty in heartened. It does not reader. not clearly understand. It does not understand the full import and significance of this bill and for that reason will hardly agree to it unless made less rigid. There is no desire among members to hamper roads. Anything an acking of that quality will meat outcomits. will meet opposition.

Defining Perpetuities.

Special to the Gazette. Auszin, Trx., March 28.-It will be remembered that some days are Semutor Kearby introduced a bill to define perpetaities and to regulate the perpetuities and to regulate the ownership of land by corporations. It was referred to a committee and ruleed quite a sub-cummittee was appointed to tute and it will come up for to-morrow. It provides that ten years. It allows a corporation to acquire real estate by lies or foreclosure, provided it disposes of the property within ten years. It is the duty of the attorney-general and district attorneys to institute suit against corporations found holding lands contrary to the provisions of this law, and the court, when sufficient evidence is introduced, shall condemn amon uraperty for sale. The proceeds, after all costs are paid, shall be deposited with the state treasurer snoject to the demand of the corporation for two years, at the end of which time it shall revert to the state and shall be credited to the available school fund.

Criticising the Governor.

Special to the Gazatte. Special to the Gazette.

AUSTIN, TEX., March 28.—Among his appointments sent by the governor to the senate Saturday the railroad commissioners were not includes for the reason that the commissioners appointed by the governor, the legislature not being in session, shall serve until the inaugurillan of the next governor. There was some talk to-day among a few senators not over friendly to the administration that this clause of the act contravenes that provision of the constitution requiring the govof the constitution requiring the governor to send to the senate for confirmation during the first ten days of the session all appointments made by him in vacation. It was rumoved also that certain senators were a trifle disgruntled because the governor failed in include commenced the contract of the ernor failed to include countisatoners among the names sent in and would so express it enselves to executive session. It remains to be seen whother there is anything in these floating rumors.

OUR WHEAT DISTRICT. John Howard on the Prospects of the

New Crop.

New Crop.

John Howard, of and for Texas, came down from Wichita Fails yesterday. He still has his boom with him.

Speaking of the Panhandle, he said:

"The acreage planted in wheat this year is much larger than that of last year—in some counties twice as large. The prospects are as good as ever were known at this time of year. Ne damage was done by the late freeze, either to wheat or oats. We are going to have trouble in handling the crop pext year, though the increase in the flour mills and elevators is such that a large percentage of the wheat will be handled in percentage of the wheat will be handled in the local towns along the line of the rall-road. Nearly every little town has a mill, and the larger ones have several. Wichita Falls is shipping out four or five carloads of flour a day.
"Most of the wheat has been sold off the farms, and the elevators have about enough to run the mills until the new crop comes

Rock Island and Sugar Pounded All Day Long-Money Continues Easy From 11-2 to 2 Per Cent-The Bond Market.

Stocks and Bonds

New York, March 29.—The tendency in the stock market is still toward a smaller volume of business. The speculative spirit of Wall street has arrived at a very low ebb. The market to-day was nothing more than a remnant of last week's trading, and presented an unusually small amount of interest, transactions after noon being restricted to hand to mouth business, while fluctuations throughout the day were confined to the narrowest limit, except four or five stocks.

Rock Island was again under the hammer. Sugar was the only other weak spot. Dullness was most interse until toward noon, when the pressure to sell became even greater than in early trading, and was maintained throughout the rest of the The close was active and weak.
